

29th ICHC

The future from the past

THE CITY OF LONDON INTERNATIONAL CYCLE HISTORY CONFERENCE

Guildhall, Gresham St., London, ECV2 7HH

13th-15th June 2018

Call for Exhibits

Conference participants are invited to exhibit cycles, or collections, curios, and/or memorabilia related to the history of cycles (bicycles, tricycles, and related vehicles). All persons who wish to exhibit must provide the information requested below and will be assigned space in the perimeter of the conference hall on a first come, first serve basis.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Exhibitors must be registered participants of the conference.

Exhibit materials are the responsibility of the exhibitor. It is recommended that exhibitors bring their own lockable display cases for valuable items that will be left in the conference hall overnight. The ICHC is unable to provide display cases. The ICHC does not offer insurance for any items brought into the conference hall.

SECURITY

Security in the conference hall is limited to general building security of Guildhall. There is no public entrance to Guildhall. All persons entering the building must present identification and pass through a security gate with x-ray of handbags. Security guards are stationed in the building at all times.
