

CYCLE HISTORY

Proceedings of the 7th International Cycle History Conference

Buffalo, New York, U.S.A.
September 1996

CYCLE HISTORY

Proceedings of the 7th International Cycle History Conference

Buffalo, New York, U.S.A.
September 1996

This volume comprises the presentations made at the 7th International Cycle History Conference.

Contributions on:

Dicycling Down the Decades
H. Cadot and His Relevance to Bicycle History
Who Invented the Penny-Farthing?
The Origins of Bicycle Racing in England
Six-Day Racing in Madison Square Garden
Nick Kaufmann, Trick Cyclist
Colonel Albert Pope and the Development of Mass Production
A Landscape of Early Bicycle History
Evolution of the Natural Trumpet and Bugle
Early Bicycle Accessories
Women and the Wheel
Jo Routens – Specialist Framebuilder
Derailleur Pulley Resistance
Rear Derailleur Development Since World War II
Velocipedes in Milan in 1811?

Published by:

Rob van der Plas
1282 - 7th Avenue, San Francisco, CA 94122, U.S.A.

Distributed by:

Motorbooks International
P.O. Box 1, Osceola, WI 54020, U.S.A.

ISBN 0-933201-89-6
U.S. $45.00
U.K. £30.00

ISBN 0-933201-89-3

