- About the Conferences
 Plagued by the unqualified drivel about the subject in many other publications that pretend to give insights into the history of the machine and the sociology of the activity, these conferences have been held annually since 1990 to "set the record straight." The conferences are open to anybody interested in the subject. To obtain further information or to register for the upcoming conferences, please visit the conference web page at <http://www.cyclepublishing/ichc.htm>
- With the publication of these Proceedings of the International Cycling History Conferences, Cycle Publishing is pleased to provide a forum for the cycling-history community. The Proceedings are published 6—12 months after the conference to which they pertain and are very handsome large-format jacketed hardcover books printed in small quantities.
