

Cycling History

14

Proceedings, 14th International Cycling History Conference

Canberra, Australia
23 - 26 February 2003

Cycling History 14

Proceedings, 14th International Cycling History Conference

Canberra, Australia

23 - 26 February 2003

Contents of this volume:

John Bazzano - Official welcome to the 14th International Cycling History Conference

Paul Farren - The legacy of George Singer: an Australian perspective

Rod Charles - Cycling in Geelong 1869 - 1930

Rolf Lunsmann - Malvern Star in post-war Australia: the story of Australia's favourite bicycle 1945 - 1958

Ron Shepherd - Race around Australia

Clare Simpson - Early cycle touring in New Zealand

Rob Hess - Edmonton's first bicycle club: the early development of cycling in western Canada, 1890-1894

Elsie Huntington - The diaries of the ABC and Leeds Ramblers Bicycle Club 1881-1883

Bob Tait - Joe Tait's "Bol D'Or" cycles

Geraldine McFarlane - Touring giant from down under: a closer look at George Burston

Stephanie Maxwell - Jerry Gould: Australia's best amateur road cyclist?

Sally Dillon - Bicycle Belles: ladies' bicycling fashion in the mid-1890s

William Hudson - Milestones and myths in bicycle evolution

Graham Bradshaw - The bicycle retailer in Australia: postwar to present

Peter Hines & Dave Walker - A short history of carbon fibre in the bicycle industry

Michael Kater - The Moulton bicycle in Australia

Jack Hephner - Identifying and dating Australian-manufactured bicycles of the pre-1950 era

Louise Palmer - 'For economy, pleasure, health': images of early Australian cycling

Published by:

The Canberra Bicycle Museum

2 Badham Street

Dickson, ACT 2602, Australia

www.canberrabicyclemuseum.info

