

Table of Contents

• Notes from the Conference Organizer	6
• Notes from the Editors	7
• Authors' Bios	91
• Index	92-93
■ Bicycle Racing
• 1. Thomas Baker: The Paris-Brest en retour Road Race of 1891, and the New Pneumatic Tire	9-21
■ Bicycle Personalities
• 11. Paul Adams: James Herbert Banks: A cycle Merchant and Bicycle Racer of Congleton, England.	65-67
• 3. Nicholas Clayton: Ernest Terrah Hooley: The Splendid Bankrupt	62-64
• 5. David V. Herlihy: 5. Cycling with the Romanovs: Four Generations of Rolling Romanovs	34-37
• Hans-Erhard Lessing: David Gordon Wilson - A Few Words of Farewell	8
■ Specific Bicycles & Antecedents
• 8. Jan Králik: Bugatti Bicycles in Czechoslovakia/Czech Republic	50-53
• 3. Hans-Erhard Lessing: Western Origins of the Rickshaws	24-27
• 12. Gertjan Moed: Hillman Herbert & Cooper: The "Premier" Safety - The Forgotten Story	68-73
• 7. Roger Street: Hobbyhorseiana Revisited: The Dandies and the Pedestrian Hobby-Horses	46-49
• 4. Walter Ulrich: K. Greger and A. Greger - The Oldest Bicycle Factory in Austria	28-33
■ Bicycle Technology
• 6. Christopher Morris: The Perils of Piracy: The Story of the Sturmey Archer AW Hub Gear and Its Pirated Forms	38-45
■ Bicycle Touring
• 14. Gary W. Sanderson: Thomas Stevens Rides with Igali Svetozar from Budapest (Hungary) to Belgrade (Serbia) in 1885 on His Ride Around the World	80-89
■ Bicycle Accessories
• 9. Lorne Shields: Bicycling & Time: Clocks, Watches, Measuring Instruments, and Their Intersectionality	54-61
■ Digitizing History and Town Planning
• 2. Heinrich Bültemann-Hagedorn: Digitizing 130 Years of Printed Bicycle Documents: For All the World and For Free	22-23
• 13. Christian Wignal: Cycling in Davis, California – An Update	74-79